

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A service provider's system components such as but not limited to a billing system and facilities maintenance system are sent a message that identifies 5 contaminated telephone numbers contained within a block of numbers released to a service provider from a number pooling authority. The message also identifies the (location routing number) LRN associated with the switch of the uncontaminated numbers.